DC Senior Citizens Seeking City Aid to Get HUD Okeh

Daly City's two main senior citizens' organizations have again asked the city council this week for help in gaining HUD (Housing and Urban Development) approval of a senior citizens' complex in the lower Mission Street area.

At times the appeal grew emotional with some speakers urging the council members to "camp on the doorstep" of HUD until that agency agrees to allocate low-income housing units for Daly City.

The department has been accused by some seniors, and by several city officials, of giving the lion's share of these unit allocations to the larger cities—San Francisco and Oakland—and scattering the remaining few annual allocations throughout the Bay Area.

There are two proposals for low-income housing for seniors in the Daly City Mission-Market Street section.

One is by Bernard Hagan Construction and the other project is the Campos Dorado development on Market Street between County and First Streets.

Both have been approved by the city council.

But building cannot begin until HUD comes through with its space allocations.

Although the buildings are constructed with private funds, the county agrees to rent them for varying terms at HUD approved rents. The builder-manager continues to maintain the premises while the county handles the financial arrangements.

This "turn key" program has proven successful throughout the country. However, before any county-builder agreement can be reached HUD must make its allocations known.

With federal cutbacks across the nation being experienced in this field there is a general scramble for whatever unit allocations will be forthcoming.

Mrs. Virgel Davis, president of the Daly City club and a longtime supporter of the senior complexes, Monday informed the council the city needs both developments because of the number of seniors in the community, but added if it comes down to a choice they would prefer the Hagan proposal—the first to come before the council last year.

Currently there are some 3,615 senior residents in the city with 455 now on the assistance of the elderly program, Mrs. Davis said.

She predicted if both projects were built today they would be

BART Is Due In D.C. Early Next Year

Despite its innumerable setbacks over the years the Bay Area Rapid Transit District (BART) is coming to town. It will be in Daly City early next year, BART officials promise.

By September of this year revenue service will start along a 28-mile segment—12 stations—between Fremont and north Oakland.

And while Daly City's multi-million dollar station, with its parking for about 850 vehicles, devices to aid the handicapped on and off trains, modern-day automation, and bullet trains off and running every few seconds at peak commute hours, was late in getting started it will never-the-less be open on time, BART pledges.

JESD Revolving Fund's Growth

By FRANK LAPIERRE

On August 26, 1948 the Jefferson School Board decided to set up an emergency petty cash fund for occasional cash expenditures such as postage, freight and similar items.

Costs rose over the next 10 years and, in 1959, the school board upped the revolving cash fund to $100 to handle what it termed "occasional emergencies."

One month after he was hired by the school district as assistant superintendent for business, Roger Barthuli, asked for and got the fund increased to $2,000 on October 18, 1965.

The board also authorized Barthuli to administer the fund.

Over the years not only has the established fund been increased in monetary size, but the scope of the items it now covers has been expanded.

Postage, freight, and the usual run of petty cash office supplies are still taken out of the revolving cash funds. In addition, the district uses the fund for defraying costs of travel by trustees and administrators alike.

Superintendent Frank L. Greenwood and assistant Barthuli use the fund to reimburse themselves for travel expenses incurred through use of their private vehicles and conducting of school business around the state.

Outside state travel expenses have also been paid for from the fund, to be later paid back though an assortment of numbered account warrants. The board often approves some 300 warrants during its regular meetings each month.

By being paid from the district's revolving cash fund, warrants for a particular expenditure do not appear in detail for trustees' scrutiny, it was learned.

One trustee, Mrs. Beverly Forrester, questions the use of the RCF for travel and meal expenses "when accounts have been set up specifically for this purpose."

It is more convenient to use this fund for such purposes, district accountant Cal Barrera said.

There are circumstances where cash is needed immediately and the prolonged route required of warrants—from the district office to the county education office back to the district—may hamper district operations, Barrera explained.

However, within the $2,000 RCF is another fund—a $200 petty cash fund to be used for precisely what the board of

D.C. Secretary Stripped, Raped

A pretty secretary was raped and robbed in broad daylight on Friday morning after being accosted at gunpoint on a much-traveled footpath in the Westlake section of Daly City.

An employee of the San Francisco Water Department was also overpowered by the rapist after he tried to help the 27-year-old woman, police said.

The gunman locked Daniel Toomey, 52, inside a pump station in a wooded area on the boundary between San Francisco and San Mateo Counties and threw his keys into the bushes.

Police said the unidentified woman left her Poncetia Avenue apartment building in Daly City about 7:30 a.m. and was walking along a footpath bordering the San Francisco Golf Club, used by many residents of the area, when the man approached her.

She was ordered at gunpoint to stock a mask and was armed with a small caliber revolver.

After raping his female victim, the suspect fled towards San Francisco on foot, police said.

Toomey was able to release himself from the pump station with another key, he explained. The woman was treated at a nearby emergency hospital and released.

Shirley Polonsky

Body of Official's Wife Found

The body of Mrs. Shirley H. Polonsky, 46-year-old wife of Daly City city attorney Albert E. Polonsky, was found at the base of a 2,000-foot high cliff near Pedro Point on Monday afternoon.

She had been reported missing since Wednesday evening. Gunna B. Skybeg, a resident of the Pedro Point beach area, discovered the battered body of the mother of two about 1:45 p.m. as he was walking his dog along the ocean front.

Car keys, a wristwatch and a pair of shoes were found Friday morning on the beach almost a mile from the cliff site, also by a resident out walking his dog. The unidentified man told police he remembered seeing a car parked on Second Street nearby. Inside was the victim's purse containing about $5 in cash and identification cards.

A Coast Guard helicopter was called in yesterday to assist in the recovery of the body and to lift three rescuers from the beach to the cliff top.

Dental charts were required to establish the woman's identity.

Our Number

If you have a complaint or a request for the North County Post, please telephone 589-1234 between 9 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Coroner's investigator Ron Kindred said it appeared Mrs. Polonsky's body had been in the ocean for several days. He speculated it might have entered the ocean at another point and washed ashore below the cliff where it was found.

There was no evidence of foul play or of a struggle, police said.

The Polonskys have two sons and have resided in Daly City for a number of years. Prior to being City Attorney, Polonsky was a city councilman.

Mrs. Polonsky disappeared after talking with a friend on Wednesday.

Private funeral services are scheduled for Friday at Sinai Memorial Chapel in San Francisco.

Children Welcome to Enter Bruno Posy Parade Sunday

This Sunday thousands of children dressed in "Early California" costumes and covered with flowers will march down San Mateo Avenue in San Bruno in the 31st Posy Parade, sponsored by the Optimist Club of San Bruno.

Entries are not limited to residents of San Bruno. All children under 15 are welcome to march in the 12 parade divisions ranging from wagons, bicycles and tricycles to dancing classes, Girl Scouts, floats, and marching band.

All children who participate will be awarded a badge and tickets entitling them to a free hot dog, soft drink, and ice cream at San Bruno City Park, the culmination of the parade.

Trophies will be awarded to the first three place winners in all parade divisions.

The grand prize will be the awarding of the "Victor Holmes Sweepstakes Cup."

Parade formation time is 12:15 p.m. The parade will start at 1 p.m. from Posy Park at the intersection of Kains Avenue and San Mateo Avenue, cross El Camino Real and travel up Crystal Springs Road to San Bruno City Park.

Individual parade entry applications are not necessary. All a child need do is appear at Posy Park before 12:30 p.m. when the judging will begin.

'Cow Shooting' Horse Of a Different Color

Two teen-age San Francisco boys suspected of shooting at cattle on a San Mateo County Coastside ranch were apprehended by helicopter Sunday.

However, it all turned out to be a big mistake. Sheriff's Sgt. Richard Driven reports.

Louis Loader, 39, called the sheriff's office about 9 a.m. to report that someone was shooting at his cattle. His wife called 20 minutes later to report that her husband was being shot at.

Sheriff's Deputy David McIntyre, pilot of the sheriff's helicopter, and Deputy Mike Preston, his observer, spotted the two suspects from the air — one lying on the ground and the other standing over him. They thought one of the youths had been shot, and McIntyre landed so they could render assistance.

It turned out, Driven said, that the two boys, ages 16, and 17, had gone to the ranch, near Montara, to shoot with a .22 rifle and a .410 shotgun at some clay pigeons they had stored there some time ago. The clay pigeons were gone, so the youths "started plinking away" with the guns, but not at the cattle, Driven reported.

However, the gunfire startled about a half-dozen cows grazing nearby and sent them scurrying down a draw toward the Loader home.

After calling the sheriff's office, Loader got in his truck and drove to a ridge from where he spotted the youths. He shouted at them to lay down their guns and walk away. The boys complied.

Confab In North County

Pro or con? Confused about the ballot measures for the June primary?

Impartial presentations of both sides of the ballot issues are scheduled for June 1 by the League of Women Voters of North San Mateo County as part of their community service program.

The first, a pro and con salad luncheon, will be held at Brenner's, 301 Gellert Blvd., Daly City, from 12:15 to 2:30 p.m.

The panel will consist of members of the league who have been participating in workshops on the issues. They will present background on both sides of the ten state proposi-

Driven reported that the one boy was lying on the ground "awaiting further orders" from Loader when he was spotted from the helicopter.

After being admonished by Driven and Deputy John Hammarstrom, who arrived by patrol car, the youths were released to their parents.

Also to be considered are the regional proposition (the Southern Crossing), the county issue (San Mateo County Charter Revision), and school unification in various districts.

It is a pot luck affair and babysitting at a nominal fee is available at the nearby Fairmont Recreation Center, 649 Parkview Circle, Pacifica.

The panel will be repeated that evening at 7:30 p.m. at Skyline College, Building 8, room 375. For further information call 355-4408.

trustees designed the initial $50 fund for in 1948.

What has sparked concern regarding this fund is its use for travel purposes.

One target of criticism is assistant Barthuli.

Trustees Dorothy Adams and Forrester have charged Barthuli with receiving travel expense reimbursements for use of his car within the district from the RCF. They say such reimbursement conflicts with his contract, which the district agreed to on August 11, 1965.

They also have voiced concern over the fact that Barthuli, acting in his capacity as assistant superintendent for business, not only is the claimant in making out vouchers for these reimbursements, but also authorizes issuance of his own checks from the fund.

Barthuli, contacted on this matter, said the intent of the school board in 1965 was not to cut off actual travel expenses incurred within the district, but to do away with the previous tradition of giving a flat $100 for such expenses, used or not. "I could have had the $100," Barthuli said. "However, I chose to put in only for actual travel expenses incurred."

The motion of August 11, 1965 regarding the contract noted Barthuli would receive an annual salary of $17,700 and that: "There will be no expenses paid for traveling within the district, only when traveling outside the district." It passed unanimously.

Over succeeding years, Barthuli has charged off "local" travel and has been reimbursed at the rate of 10 cents a mile.

last year's records indicate. Superintendent Greenwood is provided a car and credit cards for gasoline from the district. But according to travel expense sheets he still drives his own car to some meetings. He, too, is reimbursed at the rate of 10 cents per mile.

In both cases, travel expenses and meals for the two top school administrators is paid for from the district's $2,000 revolving cash fund, authorized, and signed by Barthuli.

Since July 1971 the school board has received only two financial reports on the RCF account, according to Trustees Forrester.

"In prior years I do not believe the board received any financial reports on this account except one time when Mrs. (trustee) Adams questioned it at a board meeting," Mrs. Forrester, currently clerk of the board, charged.

Such reports have been made available on request, the administration replied. Entries authorizing reimbursement for travel and meal expenses from the RCF are sketchy. Receipts are not needed to substantiate meals, it was learned.

In most official circles it is incumbent on an individual to prove, through properly dated receipts, expenses incurred in a person's office — especially when it involves taxpayers' money.

be filled to capacity within two months.

"I can provide 97 names of persons ready to move right now," Mrs. Davis said.

And while Daly City is the second largest city in the county it was behind their neighbors — South San Francisco and Pacifica — in providing senior citizens housing for the elderly. Both cities now have such complexes, it was pointed out.

Mayor Bernard J. Lycett, while vowing to continue pushing HUD for space allocations, said if it came to a choice between the two complexes because of limited HUD allocations, the city would have to make the choice.

Lycett said he wanted the best complex for the seniors and confessed he had not made up his mind as yet on which complex was the best.

City Manager David Rowe assured the group his office has been pushing for both projects except in one circumstance where the city favored Campos Dorado in correspondence with HUD.

Mary's Help Advisory Board Gains

Mary's Help Hospital in Daly City has announced expansion of its Community Advisory Board.

It is taking this step, a spokesman said, in order to increase representation from northern San Mateo County and insure a more diversified advisory body. The board counsels the hospital's board of directors and administration on matters pertaining to Mary's Help and the community.

Orientation for the new Community Advisory Board members took place at a dinner meeting yesterday.

The nine new Community Advisory Board members represent various ethnic backgrounds and age groups, and all have been active in community affairs. They are:

Pat Cannon, drug education coordinator, South San Francisco Unified School District; member, South San Francisco Citizens' Advisory Committee for Drug Abuse.

Gilbert Salas, Castle Pacific Metals, San Francisco; member, St. Andrew's Church, Daly City; Action Awareness; President, Serramonte Homeowners' Association.

Mel Tafaya, Building Inspector, City of Daly City; member, Tri-City Forum; Citizens' Advisory Committee for Mental Health; Bi-lingual Education Program.

Mrs. Madge Bradstreet, housekeeper, Beverly Plaza Hotel, San Francisco; member, President, NAACP of Daly City; former member of the board of directors of Guadalupe Clinic.

Mrs. Virgil Davis, president of Daly City Senior Citizens' Organization responsible for low income housing for senior citizens in Daly City; formerly on the board of directors for the

Pacifica Cool To Building

By BOB PETERSON

Deane and Deane Development Company representative Bob Hardesty, who apparently thought an apartment complex proposal in Pacifica was all but officially approved, left the Pacifica council chambers May 22 a frustrated man.

He was in essence told that his proposal was unique, exciting and excellent but did not exactly fit into the city's plans.

"We've tried to present a plan that will conform with your hillside ordinance," said Hardesty. "The property is zoned P.D. (planned development). We just don't know what to present to you."

Main objections listed in a recommendation for denial of the development plan by the city staff is an apparent inability of the city to provide adequate fire protection and the negative fiscal impact on the city.

Hardesty countered these objections and settled for a compromise meeting on June 5 to discuss in detail what can be done, if anything, to allow the development to proceed.

The proposal is for construction of 284 condominium units on a 47.7-acre parcel located northwest of the intersection of Sharp Park Road and Skyline Boulevard.

The location appears to be the big factor in the recommendation for denial. It is on the boundaries of San Bruno, South San Francisco and Daly City, which, according to Pacifica officials, would grab sales tax revenues the project may generate.

Another concern is that the units would mean children, which would be an added burden on an already poor district.

San Bruno turned thumbs down on a similar request of Deane and Deane to develop its land in that city.

According to Pacifica's staff figures the project would provide the city with annual revenues estimated at $66,105, while the estimated cost of city services to the area would be $78,384, or a deficit of $12,279.

"These are numbers. You can argue them," said Hardesty.

In all there was a list of seven concerns the city staff had on the project. Hardesty said there was no problem as far as he was concerned with four of the seven items.

He said he thought a figure of $70,000 annually for the city to maintain adequate fire service in the area was out of line and suggested instead a sprinkler system.

"You're not requiring that of anyone else. I'd like to think we'd be treated like any other property owner," said Hardesty.

He told Councilman Stan Farber that Deane and Deane had not given any thought to an industrial park in the area primarily because of the sloping topography. Farber indicated such a proposal would be welcomed with open arms. The entire council indicated no desire to have a project that would be a burden to the city.

Jehovah's Witness Supervisor Selected

A new district supervisor has been appointed to serve the Pacifica Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses and 21 other Bay Area congregations. F. Featherstone, local presiding minister has announced.

The new supervisor, 44-year-old Floyd E. Kite, from Los Angeles, will introduce himself to Bay Area Witnesses at their June 16-18 circuit assembly in the East Bay Richmond auditorium.

Kite will address the assembly on the public talk subject "Are You Marked for Survival" on the assembly's final day.

He comes to his new post after over nine years of service as a circuit supervisor up and down the coast of California.

His background includes experience as presiding minister of congregations in the El Cajon and Van Nuys and Boone in Iowa, and overseer of various departments in earlier assemblies of Jehovah's Witnesses.

With his wife, Goldie Mae, herself a minister in the Witnesses' home-evangelizing work, Kite now travels between Los Angeles and San Francisco, assisting the Witnesses' circuit supervisors in their work of spiritual shepherding and in organizing their individual areas' semi-annual circuit assemblies.

Floyd Kite

The current assembly, built around the theme, "Conscious of Our Spiritual Needs," will have sessions open to the public at 6:45 p.m. Friday, June 16 — also at 9 a.m. and 6:55 p.m. Saturday. The hour-long public lecture at 3 p.m. Sunday will be followed by an evening session from 4:25 to 6 p.m.

Napa Gospel Singers At Westside Baptist

At the 7 p.m. Sunday Family Fellowship Gospel Hour of the Westside Baptist Church, 390 Inverness Drive, Pacifica, the "Galatian 2:20 Singers" from the Grace Baptist Church of Napa, will present a sacred concert.

This is a youth chorus under the direction of Bill Fry. Two of the girls in the group were recent winners of the Northern California Conference Youth Fellowship Talent Contest, and will be competing with other talent at the Annual meeting of the Conference, at Camp of the Wood, New York, June 25-28.

At 5 p.m. Sunday is Sanctuary Choir practice; 6 p.m., four youth groups, instruction and fellowship, church social hall; adults, study group, church auditorium.

Sunday, at the 10:55 worship hour, Pastor A. David Donnelly will speak on the topic, "All This and Heaven Too." The ordinance of the Lord's Supper will be observed.

Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon, a work day will be held at the church. Volunteers are needed for window cleaning, painting, and general landscape work.

On June 5, at 7:15 p.m. the Boy's Brigade meets at the church social hall; Tuesday, June 6, 10 to 11 a.m., Women's Bible Class; 7:15 p.m., visitation hour; today, 7:30 p.m., final meeting until school reopens in the fall for the three "Girls Meet God" groups: Adult Bible study and prayer hour in church auditorium.

Dedication of Jeff High Freedom Shrine

Jefferson High School's library will be the site for the permanent exhibit of the Freedom Shrine.

The official dedication ceremonies and placement of these 28 authentic reproductions of historically famous American documents will take place on the campus at the library, June 4 at 2 p.m.

The public is invited to attend this free event.

Judge Charles Becker will be the keynote speaker.

The presentation of the documents in behalf of the Exchange Club of Burlingame will be made by Lee Warren, state president of the Exchange Clubs and the U.S. Marine Corps will furnish the color guard.

Invited guests include members of the Jefferson Union High School board of trustees; Edward D. Morgan, district superintendent; city council; Superior Court Judge Frank Blum; Assemblyman Leo Ryan; Congressman Paul N. McCloskey; city officials; Dr. Robert Bush, principal of Jefferson High School; and James P. Zylla, vice principal.

The Freedom Shrine gifts have been part of the National Exchange Club's education program since 1949. It was inspired by the Freedom Train which toured the nation in 1947 with an exhibit of historic American documents. Since the first Freedom Shrine presentation at Santa Monica High School in 1950, more than 3000 presentations have been made throughout the United States and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

Laguna Tots Program Cut

Funding for Pacifica's Laguna Salada Elementary School District's first year communications skills program has not been approved for next year.

The program, known as SWRL (Southwest Regional Laboratory for Educational Research and Development) was being used this past year in four LSSD schools on a pilot basis. It involves the teaching of reading to kindergarteners.

The program is to be evaluated by the teachers involved at the end of this school year.

Referring to the district's application for funding not being approved.

tary and Edward Eggert, Stanley Fisher, Gertrude Grande, Milton Potak and Myron Tessler, trustees. Mrs. Philip Frucht, outgoing president, will give a talk on the activities of the Sisterhood during the past year and will present the gavel of office to the incoming president.

Chairman of the installation is Mrs. Stanley Fisher. The Oneg Shabbat (social hour) following the service and ceremonies will be hosted by the ladies. All members of the congregation and friends are invited to this Sisterhood Sabbath.

Rabbi Emeritus Shore to Conduct Service

Chairman of the Religious

School committee, George Billick, announces that the committee, in conjunction with the student body organization of Congregation B'nai Israel will present a showing of "Sallah," the popular Israeli-produced film that stars Topol who is currently appearing in "Fiddler on the Roof."

Sallah is a typical Oriental Jew with a family of seven children who is suddenly uprooted from a centuries-old civilization and thrust into the twentieth century Israeli maelstrom.

There will be two showings of the film in the congregation's social hall, 1575 Annie Street, Colma. An "Adults Only" viewing will be held on June 3 at 8 p.m. Donation will be $1.25 per person and refreshments will be served. In addition, "Sallah" will be shown on June 4 at 9:45 a.m. for the children of the Religious School and their guests. There is no charge for the children at this showing.

Julius Michaelis, adult advisor or to the student body, encourages all to attend since, in addition to enjoying the film, the audience will have the experience of hearing Hebrew spoken in conversational form. The film will have English subtitles.

The regular monthly meeting of the Men's Club of Congregation B'nai Israel will be held June 6 at the temple's social hall. President Stanley Spinrod will preside.

ten age through the sixth grade are invited to one of these Vacation Schools whether or not they attend a church regularly.

The other event planned for youth and adults to be held all summer is a midweek union worship service held on Wednesdays.

The first union service is next week on June 6, 7:30 to 8:15 p.m. at the Westlake Lutheran Church where services in June are held during June.

During July, services are to be at the Baptist church; August at the Presbyterian; and September at the Methodist church.

While advertisements on other media may be the time for a snack or an intrusion into an entertaining hour—people enjoy advertising in the newspaper. It's probably because there's a chance to circle, clip out, post, reread the items listed in a paper. And the advertising, as well as the rest of the paper, can be read at ones convenience—whenever or wherever there's time.

Pacifica's Token School Budget

The Pacifica Laguna Salada Elementary School District preliminary budget headed for the county superintendent's office will carry a bare minimum (at least $1) in reserve and will be padded with "projected state income."

Trustees of the low-wealth district Thursday night expressed various degrees of exasperation in the "exercise of futility" in preparing a "meaningless" preliminary budget to meet the end of June deadline.

They wanted through the budget to emphasize the district's financial plight.

"All it is is a game," said Trustee Sid Lorvan, giving the general feeling of the others that any submitted budget is nowhere near to what is needed to operate a district.

"We ought to tell the legislators we don't want to play the game anymore," said Lorvan.

Superintendent Jim Brien had suggested four alternatives in preparing the necessary preliminary budget.

He suggested adoption of a revised budget that can be changed in July "just to get a budget to the county by the end of June."

A second alternative was to work on some revisions the administration had suggested and submit a bare $1 or more minimum balance to keep it legal. And again come back in July for revisions.

The third alternative was to add anticipated income from the state to the budget. As in each of the other instances, re-vamping would be required any-how in June.

And the fourth option was to prepare a budget assuming there would be money available from a successful unification vote by the district, should unification fail overall. In that case the district would get $20 per pupil per year.

Chairman Lee Riewerts said he wanted to "do some negotiating" with the unknown figure of additional (state) funds.

Trustee Will Frye said he wanted to know priorities, because even if the district were to get additional money there still would be a need to cut.

"I think we ought to send in an unbalanced budget (to the county) because I think the county ought to say (to the state) they (Laguna Salada) can't make it this year without more money," said Trustee Anita Heyman.

Trustee Dale Buettgenback offered the most radical proposal to stress the district's financial plight. He suggested entering a 10 per cent salary cut across-the-board on the preliminary budget. "That might have a bigger impact than anything else," said Buettgenback.

Mary Sundberg, teachers' representative, offered that it also would have an impact on the already low morale of the teachers in the district.

Brien said there would be "minimum gain" by recommending a cut in salaries.

Frye suggested it might shake the legislators "if we let Sacramento know we're publicly supporting the Watson Initiative" because it will be good for the district.

The Watson Initiative, proposed by the Los Angeles County Assessor, would set a minimum property tax rate ceiling of $2 for governmental uses. It would, in short, quickly bankrupt most school districts.

But, ironically, the Pacifica Laguna Salada School District would, because of its present low-wealth status, stand to gain financially if the initiative passed.

S.S.F. Pupil Wins Prize

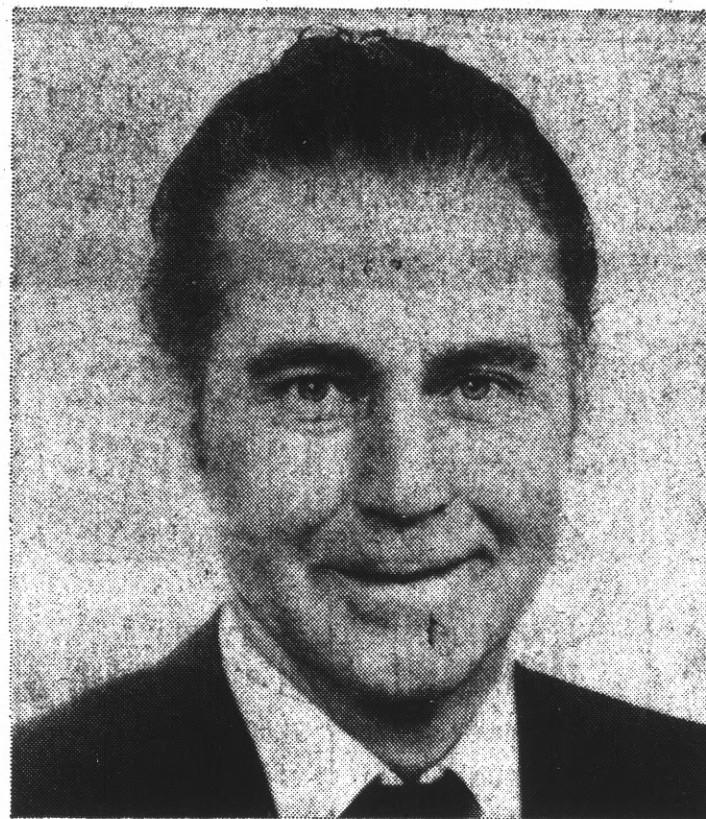

The annual welding contest sponsored jointly by the College of San Mateo and WESCO of Redwood City and San Jose and open to all San Mateo County high school students, was held at the College of San Mateo Welding Technology Department. The contestants were tested on oxyacetylene welding and stick electrode welding and judged by senior students of the welding technology program.

First prize, a complete oxyacetylene outfit, was won by Ron Gonzalez, a student at South San Francisco High School. Second, third and fourth prizes were won by Rob Coburn of Half Moon Bay High School, John Devlin of Mills High School and Tom Strycula of San Carlos High School, respectively.

DID YOU KNOW?

YOUR STATE LEGISLATURE IN SACRAMENTO IS COMPOSED OF 50% PERCENT ATTORNEYS? 13% PERCENT SCHOOL TEACHERS, AND ONLY 37% PERCENT FROM OTHER VARIED BACKGROUNDS? WITH NO REPRESENTATIVES HAVING EXPERIENCE IN THE ACCOUNTING FIELD? OF ALL THE STANDS PRESENTED BY ED. ANDERSEN, NOT ONE OPPONENT, DEMOCRATIC OR REPUBLICAN, HAS PRESENTED ONE THAT CONCERNS ALL CITIZENS AS VITALLY AND BASICALLY AS THAT WHICH INVOLVES THE REFLECTION OF TRUE REPRESENTATION, REPRESENTATION THAT INCLUDES ALL PROFESSIONS AND WALKS OF LIFE.

DO YOU WANT DIRECT ANSWERS? READ ANDERSEN'S STANDS

BUSING: Children and parents are being used as political pawns in an issue cloaked in social facades. Busing has not accomplished educational equality and social integration but has resulted in conflict and frustration for the ones being bused. Responsible parental control is not to be relinquished to enforced busing.

TAXATION: Andersen, an accountant, has owned and operated Universal Bookkeeping Co. since 1960, and he is cognizant of financial problems encountered by the citizens and the state. An excess proportion of the tax burden in California is carried by the property owners, and there is a need for a fixed ceiling on property taxes.

LAW AND ORDER: Reported crimes of rape in San Mateo County have increased 55% this year. Major sex offenders convicted of child molesting or criminal rape should be forced to submit to castration. Many convicted of sex offenses have requested castration to prevent them from committing a greater assault, perhaps ending in murder. If the mentally disturbed can see this as the only solution, how can we but know it is the mandatory solution.

DEATH PENALTY: 50% of your state legislature are attorneys, and they do not believe the death penalty is effective as a crime deterrent. This is for you to decide. The Supreme Court has assumed a legislative function by its decision to invalidate the death penalty. Do you want to eliminate the state legislature and thus trim the state budget by $29,000,000? Or do you want representative government? ANDERSEN believes the decision belongs to the electorate. YOU. (The death penalty bill was defeated in the Senate by 2 votes. One of these belonged to Senator Arlen Gregorio (D) 12th District San Mateo County.)

MRS. MARGARET Connolly is the new president of the Daly City Girl Scout Association.

June Wider Married At St. Robert's Church

St. Robert's Church in San Bruno was Saturday's setting for the marriage of June Wider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wider of San Bruno, and Richard Rajeski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rajeski of Walnut Creek.

Red and pink flowers decorated the altar for the 12:15 p.m. ceremony. A reception followed at Russo's Restaurant in San Bruno.

June, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding dress fashioned with lace sleeves and bodice and a white satin skirt. She carried white long stemmed roses, pink baby's breath, and white lilies.

Jean Wider, her sister's maid of honor, wore a long pink crepe dress and carried three red long stemmed roses.

Bridesmaids were Bonnie Warren and Susan and Sharon Wider. They also wore pink and carried three long pink roses.

Don Romero was Richard's best man, and guests were seated by Don Rodriguez, Dave Solomon and Randy Guidi.

Among the guests were Erna Trapp of Germany, June Polcastro and Marie Michelangelo of New Jersey, and Ed Stenfor, who is 100 years old.

Mrs. Wider took her place in the family pew in a floor length pink floral silk dress. Her flowers were pink and red roses.

Richard is the brother of Gloria Thorsen, June Maffei, and Ray Rajeski. A highway patrolman, he and his bride will live in Los Angeles.

Jr. Symphonic Workshop Set In South City

An eight-week Junior Symphonic Workshop will be offered again this summer by the South San Francisco Park and Recreation Department, Mondays and Wednesdays, 10 a.m. to noon.

The Workshop will be training program in performance and fundamentals for junior high aged students or under, who have completed one year or more of school or private training on a band instrument (no stringed instruments).

Instructional rehearsals start June 19 and end Aug. 9. The Junior Symphonic Workshop will be held at the Westborough Junior High School bandroom.

Instructor will be Fred Cadiente, director of the Westborough Junior High School Band.

Workshop fee is $10. Registration will be taken at 601 Grand Ave. on June 14 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 6 to 9 p.m.

Jeannie Marsh Is Wed

Honeymooning at Lake Tahoe are Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Emmett Wilds (Jeannie Arlene Marsh) who were married at noon today at Trinity Presbyterian Church in San Carlos.

The Rev. Arthur Brett conducted the rites for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bedard of San Bruno and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Wilds of Grand Junction, Colo.

For her wedding Jeannie chose a floor length white satin detachable train. The outfit was made by the honor attendant. She carried a bouquet of baby's breath centered with white roses.

Carol Hanes, the maid of honor, set the style of dress for all the attendants in a floor length pink chiffon gown with lace detailing. Bridesmaids were Carol Marsh of San Bruno, and Sue Henderson of South San Francisco. All three girls carried bouquets of baby's breath; the honor attendant's flowers were centered with pink roses and the other girls' flowers were centered with lace detailing.

A miniature version of the attendants' gowns was worn by Michele Bedard, the flower girl, who carried a small basket of baby's breath and pink roses.

Best man duties were performed by Michael Gordon and guests were seated by William Charles Marsh, Jeannie's brother, and Robert Ohlson. Ricci and Joey Bedard shared ring bearer duties.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple greeted guests at the Villa Chartier Restaurant. Following their honeymoon they will establish a residence in San Mateo.

The new Mrs. Wilds was graduated from Oceana High School and is now employed in Foster City. She is the president of the JMCCS Sports Club. He is a veteran of the U.S. Navy who is now working for the City of Belmont.

The matron's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beecher Sr., longtime San Mateo residents who will be celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary on July 1.

The senior class, under president Barbara Verniest, has the final dates set for the senior activities.

The Senior Tea, sponsored by the Homemaking Department, was held May 25 at 3 in the JHS cafe and all senior girls and their mothers were invited. Refreshments were served.

The Senior Ball was held May 26 at the Hilton in San Francisco with the music by Dally Bread.

Senior Dress Up Day was May 30, and all seniors are encouraged to dress up in the costume they want.

June 1 marks the day when the seniors will take a trip to Adobe Creek for the annual Senior Picnic. The cost of the picnic is $2.25 and includes the use of all facilities and a sirloin steak dinner. June 2 is Senior Cut Day. June 15 is the day that the 225-member class of '72 will put on their caps and gowns and march into the gym for the last time.

GRADUATION is at 8 p.m. in the gym. Gradnight will be at Westlake Bowl this year, and the cost is $9, which includes use of all facilities and a buffet from 11:30 till 5. June 16-18 is the Disneyland Trip which costs $62.50. This covers the plane trip by Air-California, a room at the Hyatt House, one book of tickets, one breakfast and transportation to and from the L.A. Airport.

The class of '75 ended the year with a car wash, May 20 at the Mobile station by Serramonte Center. The class made $40 which boosted their class treasury to $300.

Student government ended its activities this year by holding their banquet in the Skyline Plaza. Forty students attended the banquet along with Hurry, hurry, hurry! Reservations are going fast for the Good Shepherd Parents Club's picnic on Sunday, according to Mrs. Clifford Taylor, publicity chairman of the group.

Blackberry Farm in Cupertino has been selected for the site of this salute to summer vacation time and the pool will be open, the barbecue facilities spruced up and ready to roar, and paraphernalia ready for athletic competitions.

Mrs. Taylor indicates that the plans for the families and guests to bring their own picnic fixings and take part in the games and activities which are being planned by the parents group.

Tickets, costing $1.20 per adult and 80 cents per child, are available to anyone calling Mrs. Alma Gogan, 993-5129 or Mrs. Marilyn Donnelly, 355-0759.

Mrs. Taylor reports it also time to reserve space for your child in the parish school. The Good Shepherd Catholic School still has some fall openings in grades one through six. Anyone interested should come to the school office, 221 San Diego Dr. in Pacific Manor, on Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

More information about the parish school is available from the school office, 359-4544.

THE ABRAHAM LINCOLN Elementary school in Daly City will hold an End-Of-The-Year picnic on Sunday, June 11, according to Mrs. William Holland, publicity chairman for the Lincoln P-TA unit.

All families, friends and relatives are invited to attend the Sunny Turtle Rock Ranch event. The school has contracted with the ranch management to reserve the entire Walnut Creek locale for the festivities.

Mrs. Holland, explained that there will be a $5 charge per family. All guests will be able to use the swimming pool, barbecue and picnic areas as well as take part in the races and games which have been planned. More information about the picnic may be obtained by calling 755-8427.

The picnic will be the first function to take place under the new administration within the Lincoln P-TA unit. The 1972-73 slate was installed during a recent evening meeting held in the multi-use room of Abraham Lincoln School.

New officers are Herman Erler, president; Donald Pagani, honorary vice president; Mrs. Richard Gardella, vice president; Mrs. Caesar Sabbatani, recording secretary; Mrs. Herman Erler, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Dean Smith, financial secretary; Mrs. Donald Bellumini, treasurer; Dean Smith, auditor and Mrs. Ronald Oxenham, historian.

A joint board meeting will be held in the multi-use room of the school on Tuesday, June 13, when members of the new board meet with the retired members of the 1971-72 board for an exchange of ideas and information.

ARE YOU LOOKING for something for your children to do during the summer? Mrs. Monte Hill of Westlake suggests that you consider sending children between the ages of five and 12 to the Lakeside Presbyterian Church's Vacation Church School.

Mrs. Judy Prescott will be the superintendent of the school which will be in operation between June 19 and June 30.

Among those localities who will be assisting with the singing, art, games, crafts, stories and refreshments will be Mrs. Hill, Janice Hill and Mrs. Troy Daniels.

More information about the non-sectarian program may be obtained by calling 564-8833.

MR. AND MRS. Sam Krips of Daly City are homeward bound after attending the National Convention of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of American CIO-AFL convention in Miami, FL.

The convention which lasted for ten days was one of the last functions Krips will attend as the northern California area representative as he has recently accepted a promotion which will move the family residence to the southern sector of the state.

LARRY PUCCINI, Margine Sako, Fern Tracey and Neville Wall of Jefferson High School, along with Serramonte High School's Carolyn Ceccuni, Lawrence deGhetaldi, Alice Gee and Carol Muller and Westmoor High School's Amy Hall, David Sausjord, Ray Schnapp, Carol Edwards and Maureen Murray, were the honored guests at the recent Daly City Chamber of Commerce Awards Night.

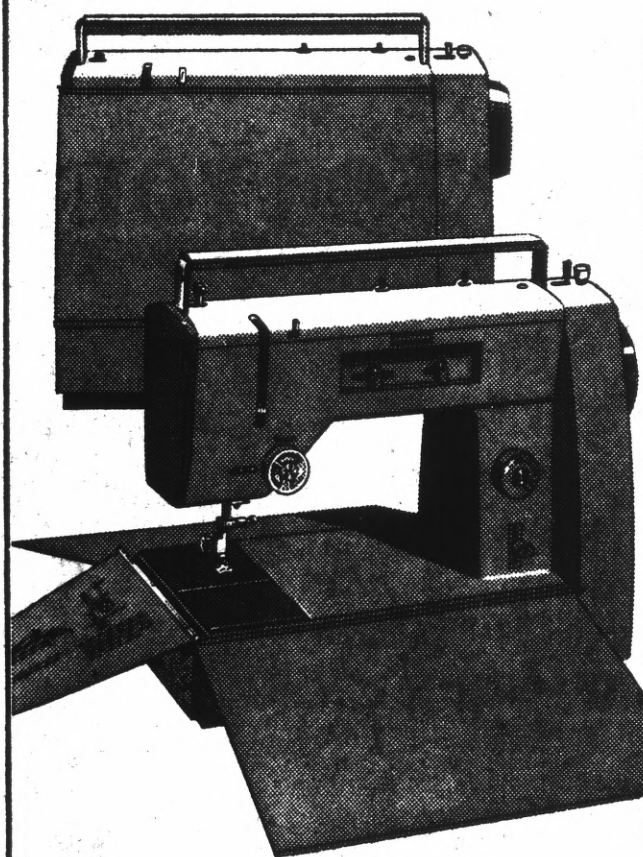

Mayor Bernard Lycett headed the list of dignitaries who spoke in welcome to the outstanding youth of our three high schools.

Members of the reception committee included Robert Brant, Elio Fontana, James Howe, Peter Marteau as rally commissioner.

Good morning, good cooks.

Are you enjoying your second cup of coffee, looking through The Post to see what's special at the markets today and trying to decide what to have for dinner? What a coincidence, that's my Wednesday morning activity too.

If lamb appeals to you today, this recipe for a simple to make and simple delicious stew is for you.

LAMB AND VEGETABLE STEW

- 4 shoulder lamb chops (about 1 1/2 pounds)
- 2 Tablespoons shortening
- 1 can condensed consommé
- 1/4 teaspoon rosemary leaves, crushed
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 8 small onions
- 1 package cut green beans
- 2 to 3 Tablespoons flour
- 1/4 cup water

In a skillet, brown the four lamb chops in the two tablespoons shortening. Pour off the excess drippings. Add the one can consommé, one-fourth teaspoon crushed rosemary and minced garlic. Cover and cook over low heat for 30 minutes. Add the eight onions and the package frozen beans; cook covered an additional 30 minutes or until the vegetables are tender. Remove the meat and vegetables and keep hot while you prepare the gravy.

Blend the two tablespoons flour with the fourth cup water and stir until smooth. Pour into the gravy in the skillet gradually, stirring as you add. Cook until thickened. Serve with rice or mashed potatoes.

Serves 4.

If ground beef is more appealing to you than the lamb chops, this hamburger pie is a mighty tasty and

HAMBURGER QUINCE

- 1 pound ground chuck
- 1 cup thinly sliced onion
- 1 Tablespoon butter
- 3 Tablespoons flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1 3/4 cups milk
- 2 eggs
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 cups shredded cheddar cheese
- 1 (9-inch) unbaked pie shell

Saute the one pound ground beef and the cup sliced onion in the tablespoon butter until onion is soft. Blend in the three tablespoons flour, one teaspoon salt and fourth teaspoon pepper.

Combine the one and three-fourths cup milk, two eggs, one teaspoon Worcestershire sauce and one cup of the shredded cheese and blend into the cooked meat and onions. Pour into unbaked pie shell and bake in 425-degree oven 25 to 35 minutes or until filling is set. Let stand 10 to 15 minutes before cutting into wedges. Makes 6 servings.

NOTE: Be sure to build up a high rim on the pie shell, this is a generous filling.

PIE CRUST

- 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 to 3 Tablespoons water

Sift the one and one-half cups flour and the one teaspoon salt into a bowl. Cut in the half cup shortening. Sprinkle with the 2 to 3 tablespoons cold water. Toss lightly with a fork. Place on waxed paper. Knead 3 times. Let stand at room temperature about 20 minutes. Roll out between pieces of waxed paper. This amount makes one pie shell.

Players Give Two One-Act Plays June 3

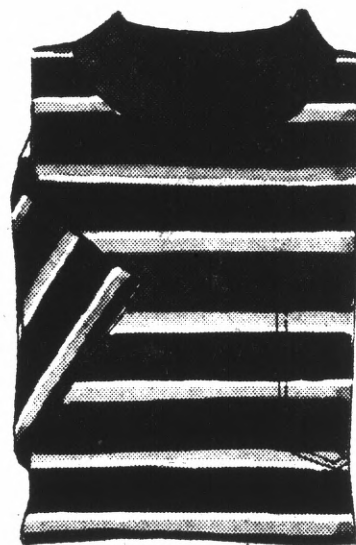

Pacific Spindrift players will present two one-act plays on three weekends, beginning June 3.

"A Short Walk After Dinner" by Cleve Haubold, is a drama about Charles Haven, who returns home from a short walk after dinner to find that something has gone hauntingly, terrifyingly wrong with his life. With growing alarm he tries to explain away the strange change that has come over him, finally discovering he has unaccountably lost 20 years during his short walk.

The second one-act "The American Dream" by Edward Albee, was a long-running off-Broadway success, a comedy which shocked and fascinated New York theatergoers by presenting a picture of smugness and spiritual barrenness, asking if this is what the American dream has amounted to. The dialogue is caustic and hilarious and comments satirically on marriage, the problem of old age and a diversity of other matters. It has its share of amusing and penetrating surprises.

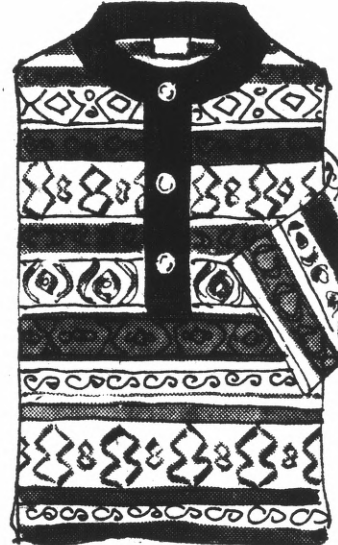

The plays will be presented in the Community Room of the Sharp Park Library, Palmetto Avenue and Hilton Way, Pacifica, on Saturday, June 3, 10 and 17 at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday, June 4, 11 and 18 at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $2 for adults, $1.25 for high school students.

Highlands Children Tour S.F. Bay, Angel Island

A first-hand view of the geography of the Bay Area, a Social Studies unit, was provided for middle and upper primary students of Highlands School in Millbrae taught by Mrs. Eileen Baldwin.

A beautiful clear day helped to make an exciting trip to Angel Island via a ferry boat ride a memorable part of their studies. The children boarded a bus to the San Francisco Embarcadero where they went aboard the Harbor King that transported them to Angel Island. Along the way numerous landmarks were pointed out pertaining to the geography of the Bay Area that had been previously discussed in class.

A naval ship was passed as the children waved to the sailors aboard. Once on the island the children enjoyed their sack lunches under the trees then climbed the hill to hike all the way over to the top and other side of the island enjoying breath-taking views of the entire Bay Area. On the other side of the island the children saw historical buildings that still stand which help keep history alive.

Assisting Mrs. Baldwin were substitute teacher Mrs. Sheila Einhorn and several mothers of students in the class—Mrs. Robert Serio, Mrs. Nicholas Novich, Mrs. Ronald Hostetter and Mrs. Joseph Himes, Jr.

Earlier in the year the children took a field trip to the Presidio and Fort Point where they toured the inner corridors and courtyard and climbed atop the fort where they could look up and see the structure of the Golden Gate Bridge above them. At that time they enjoyed lunch at the Presidio itself viewing its boundaries and historical cannons. Next in line was stated to be a trip to the Bay Model in Sausalito

Only a Shout Away

AS EXPECTED The Jefferson Elementary School District Board of Trustees will begin holding their regular meetings in the Daly City City Council Chambers on June 7. Study sessions will continue to be held at the District Offices, 101 Lincoln Avenue.

We hail the epic decision as a giant step toward better education of the district's children. Not only does the Civic Center chambers have excellent acoustics, lighting, comfortable seats for everyone, various levels for district officialdom, but also the local constabulary is only a shout away.

The latter is good to know, in case anyone needs protection from vocal harassment or must be ejected from the room when they fail to abide by the (officially) accepted rules of meeting etiquette.

SICK CALL — Former D.C. City manager Ed Frank recuperating after minor leg surgery. Now's the time to get him in the golf course 'cause he's not supposed to put too much weight on the shank. . . . Handsome U.R. "Jack" Kendree not feeling up to snuff and has been out of the office these past few days. Hurry up and get well, Jack, I'll be around to collect that lunch. (Remember?)

MARK YOUR CALENDARS — House of Parties, Mission-Hillcrest area, Daly City, today at 7 p.m. City council and staff will meet the people concerning redevelopment. Open to the general public.

NOTES FROM MISSION MERCHANTS meeting last week in which candidates for various offices met the folks. It got off to a grand start with President Vince Merlo introducing Judge Charles Becker: "I'm going to introduce Judge Becker . . . and I hope you don't mind." Nobody did and the judge rose to speak to the membership.

The judge had an interesting point: Of the county's 13 judges the North County has only one judge — Frank Blum — sitting on the Superior Court bench. "There should be two," Becker said.

NEXT CAME ASSEMBLY CANDIDATES — San Bruno Councilman Tony Governale presented a light speech relating several anecdotes of his campaign to date. He started his talk by telling the luncheon audience at Val's Restaurant that the Democrats in the assembly race were taking up 40 percent of the area's billboard space and as soon as the race was over "you can have your boards back."

JUHSU SUPERINTENDENT ED MORGAN, the only GOP assembly candidate at the luncheon, likewise noted the spurge of billboard space taken by Democrats. "The Republicans used to be accused of being the 'money party' but the Democrats have taken over all the billboard space," he quipped. And he noted that within the 27th Assembly District — "the county's most unpredictable voting district" — there are three registered Democrats to every Republican. "I welcome these odds," Morgan said. "It takes three Democrats to make one good Republican."

LAST SPEAKER WAS D.C. Councilman Lou Papan. He took on a serious tone. Papan went right into what he wants to do in the State Assembly on tax relief, on property relief, on employment, BART and development of San Bruno Mountain. Later, he said "I want to go to Sacramento because that's where it's at . . . that's where tax relief must come from — the top."

EACH CANDIDATE FIELDLED questions from the floor following their opening presentations. Each did a fine job, we add.

IT'S TRUE PRESIDENT NIXON went to the Great Wall of China, but so did we. Funny thing, Nixon's trip cost a lot more and required many thousands of miles of travel. Not ours! All we did was drive up to the St. Francis Shopping Center in Daly City and there it was — The Great Wall Restaurant. Here's the kicker in this plug: Mrs. Lin Ho, owner-manager, speaks fluent Japanese in addition to English and (of course) Chinese. She was raised in Kobe, Japan. An added note: If you can't make it to the Great Wall, they'll come to you. Now let's see Henry Kissinger beat that one.

IN GOING THROUGH our files of yesteryear we came across an interesting and, we sincerely believe, topical article written by Jefferson Elementary School District Superintendent Frank L. Greenwood in the California School Boards publication of February 1967.

In the "Sounding Board" section this is what the superintendent had to say:

"Fifteen years ago I assumed my first leadership role in the public schools of California. At age 25 I was principal, district superintendent, secretary of the Board of Trustees and, during the walnut season, drove the school bus to enable the drivers to assist with the cleaning of the extra classrooms. For this I received $4,500 on a 12 month contract in 1951.

"From $4,500 and a one-school district in 1951 to $22,500 in a 20 school district in 1965-66. There were three other district superintendents in between, making a grand total of five separate jobs during my administrative career.

"During this time I have had the pleasure of working with five separate Boards of Trustees, 47 different board members on 126 school building projects, resulting from 13 successful tax rate, bond and state aid elections with no losses. It has been said that I could well be considered the Duncan Hines of California school districts.

"My longest tenure of service in any one district was 49 months and I've never been fired (only accommodating). My friends, of whom I have few, say that if you have problems, get Frank Greenwood. Conversely, my enemies, of whom I have many, and of which I am very proud, say, if you have Frank Greenwood, you really have problems.

"It is difficult to imagine anything new happening, but I'm sure it will. My administrations have had the distinction of being the object of two Grand Jury reports resulting from nothing more serious than the allegation that the schools were preaching Communist doctrine because the social studies program had a unit on the United Nations organization.

"In three districts, we were able to cross the color line without experiencing boycotts, board recalls or strikes. This was accomplished prior to the time that Civil Rights was a court case and our demonstrative beard-toting friends became fashionable. It was also before soap was considered a tool of the conservatives. I suppose there is some symbolism here involving courage, manhood and the ability to cultivate a crop on the chin of what grows wild elsewhere, but I confess I don't see it." (This article will continue next week to its conclusion. FLP)

Letters to The Editor

To the Editor:

I would like to commend Mr. Frank LaPierre for his accurate and unbiased press coverage in the Jefferson Elementary School District. Mr. LaPierre has shown an ability to think independently, to rely on fact rather than prejudice, and to consider all sides of controversial issues.

A commitment of the American press has always been to oversee the honesty of government. Our founding fathers recognized a committed and unfettered press to be essential to the survival of the democratic process. Without access to the facts, the people cannot make wise choices in the conduct of their government.

To promote better school-community relations, the conditions, needs, and resources of the school district must be presented to the citizens. I greatly appreciate the time Mr. LaPierre has spent informing the people, for to create an understanding by providing information contributes not only to the welfare of the schools, but to the community as well.

BEVERLY FORRESTER,

TRUSTEE
Jefferson Elementary School District.

To the Editor:

I am writing this to express my sincere appreciation and admiration for Mr. LaPierre and his intense effort to inform the general public of the activities of this public officials.

For 2 1/2 years I have sat through meetings and felt frustrated to find that no one seemed to be able to stop the outrageous activities of the (Jefferson) elementary school district's administration and outside local concerns.

For the first time, your newspaper has printed what was formerly ignored. Local politics has come to the point where only direct action, such as your paper informing the public of the facts, not fancies, will ever bring about the return of honesty and integrity on the part of public officials.

I wholeheartedly support your efforts and wish you success.

LYNN HUGHES,
Colma.

To the Editor:

Thank you for informing the JESD community of what is happening here. We have long needed a newspaper voice to publicize abuse of the tax dollar and administrative mismanagement.

May I call your attention to the Attorney General's Volunteers Advisory Council, of which my husband is a member. Through this group perhaps legislation may be suggested that will prevent or forestall some of the questionable actions taken by the JESD administration and personnel commission.

Several people called me to comment favorably on your articles . . . so rest assured your excellent journalism is appreciated not only by myself.

REVA KRIPS
Daly City

To the Editor:

Have just finished reading your article, Mr. LaPierre.

Thank you ever so much!!!

My husband and I sure are glad there are people like you around who are willing to come out with the facts for the paying public. We sure are tired of paying thru the nose for our so-called public spirited people . . . where does it all stop?

Keep up the good work.
DALE AND SUE EDWARDS,
Daly City.

To the Editor:

In reading the May 4 article about the Cyclist and protesting neighbors, I find that the cyclist are in a very awkward situation along with the neighbors; they have no place to go.

Of course what their doing to the land is very wrong. All the topsoil in the area that they have been riding on is destroyed. Because of this problem, we see erosion as another problem.

But something must be done. There are roughly 610,000 registered cycles, and no place for off the pavement cyclist to go.

Couldn't these riders obtain land, or have the state and local governments set up special parks for cyclists only?

I think a solution to this ever increasing problem should be solved before all our privately and government land is ridden from under us.

MICHAEL J. GORDAN

'No' on School Unification

Pursuant to the California Education Code, three areas of San Mateo County will find the June ballot burdened with school unification proposals for which there has been no popular demand and are similar to the Unified School District measures soundly defeated in 1966. In the various localities they appear on the sample ballots and will be shown on the voting machines as:

School Proposition B which would effect unification of the Jefferson Union High School District, Bayshore School District, Brisbane School District, Jefferson Elementary School District, and the Laguna Salada Union School District.

School Proposition C which would effect the unification of the San Mateo Union High School District, Burlingame School District, Hillsborough City School District, Millbrae School District, San Bruno Park School District and the San Mateo Elementary School District; and School Proposition D which would effect the unification of the Sequoia Union High School District, Belmont School District, Las Lomas School District, Menlo Park City School District, Portola Valley School District, Ravenswood School District, Redwood City School District, San Carlos School District and the Woodside School District.

The Post recommends a vote of "No" on all three of these propositions. The arguments for unification are even less valid now than they were in 1966 when they were touted as promoting economy in use of school facilities, faculty costs, administrative costs, and purchasing. Unification elections succeeded in a few localities in 1966 and there is considerable evidence that the promised economies were not realized and, in fact, there were significant increases in costs attributable to unification.

The arguments against unification in 1966, which were convincing to San Mateo County voters, all remain valid. These were that unification would lead to loss of local control of the schools, that it would lead to higher costs and higher taxation, that the "leveling out" process would deprive many San Mateo County schoolchildren of their present educational opportunities, and that the entire unification proposal was an unwarranted intrusion into local autonomy of the schools.

All of this is still true and the cost argument is redoubled in the light of the inflation that has occurred since 1966. In 1972 the added taxation would be intolerable.

For their own protection, and for the preservation of the high quality of education in San Mateo County, all voters should make it a special point to vote "No" on School Propositions B, C, and D.

Excellent Judicial Candidates

The June 6 election to fill a vacant Judgeship in Office No. 9 of the San Mateo County Superior Court presents the unusual circumstance of a choice by voters between two candidates who are both eminently qualified to fill the office.

Both are Municipal Court judges with outstanding records at bench and bar, and both are held in the highest regard by members of their own legal profession. Their candidacies for the Superior Court do not affect their present incumbencies in the Municipal Courts and the loser in the Superior Court contest will continue to be a Judge in the Municipal Court.

Because both candidates are so well qualified, and either one an excellent choice, The Post has decided that, in all fairness, it must recommend both of them in confidence that the voters can make no mistake whichever candidate they may choose.

The two candidates are:

Judge Charles Becker of the Northern Judicial District who was first elected in 1958 and subsequently re-elected in 1964 and 1970 for six year terms. Prior to 1958 he had been City Judge in Colma. He is a resident of Daly City.

Judge William Lanam is presiding Judge of the Central Judicial District. He was appointed to the bench by Governor Ronald Reagan in 1970. He was a Deputy District Attorney for three years, directed the private defender program in the county, and in 1963 was the first Juvenile Court Referee in the county. He is a resident of Burlingame.

San Mateo County can count itself fortunate to have two such excellent candidates for the bench long occupied with distinction by retiring Judge Joseph A. Branson.

Blueprint for a Disaster upon the use of air-polluting fossil fuels to generate the electric power the state must have.

It would limit, or halt, the use of pesticides that are necessary to the protection of health, food and public safety, and many of the substitutes for these are unproven, less effective and have toxic effects on the ecology.

The variance limitations would shut down plants and factories during smog alerts, even if there were no relation between their emissions and the cause of the smog alert.

Worst of all, Proposition 9 would enforce all this inflexibly with its provisions frozen into law and unchangeable except by time-consuming court decisions or repeal by the voters.

Proposition 9 should be defeated before it can do incalculable damage to California's economy, destroy industry, and throw thousands upon thousands of people out of work. It should be defeated before it can bankrupt state and local revenues, brown-out or black-out power, and bring transportation to a halt.

It is counter-productive and will defeat the very purposes it is supposed to serve.

The principle of a clean environment, and its desirability, is a worthwhile goal. But if the reader will look around him he will have little trouble deciding that a more temperate approach to eradicating pollution would be immensely preferable to a measure that threatens the whole state with disaster.

Vote "No" on Proposition 9.

Proposition 6: 'Yes' Vote

Proposition 6 being placed before California voters on June 6 is a Constitutional Amendment dealing with the voting eligibility of naturalized citizens. It eliminates an existing provision in the State Constitution requiring naturalized citizens to have been naturalized 90 days prior to casting their first vote.

This provision is a carryover from the last century when Californians were concerned that immigrants might be used for political purposes. That concern no longer exists.

Since candidates for naturalization must now reside in the United States for a minimum of three years for spouses, and five years for others, and are required to pass extensive examination on local, state and United States government and history, it is assured that they are prepared for the privilege of the voting franchise.

In actuality, all citizens are required to register to vote 54 days before an election. This proposition eliminating the 90-day period for naturalized persons therefore represents only a period of 36 days.

There is no longer any reason for exercising a 90-day waiting time after naturalization before the new citizen can vote. The Post recommends a "Yes" vote on Proposition 6.

Samuel Chandler

Proposition B Most Important?

Since 1922 when the Jefferson High School District was formed, the unification of Northern San Mateo schools has often been before the public. At least three times the voters have been asked to cast their ballots on the matter.

Now it is before them again as Proposition B on the June 6 ballot.

This time let us make unification a fact or defeat it so soundly no one can mistake our desires. But first let us consider it carefully, with dispassion. Perhaps it is the most important matter of the June 6 election.

IF UNIFICATION passes, schools in Brisbane, Bayshore, Daly City and Pacifica will become part of a large district with a single governing board that will have the responsibility of leveling a permissive tax that can produce revenue equal — perhaps greater than the sum presently allowable for education in each of the five districts.

If created by a yes vote on June 6, the unified district will spring into operation on July 1, 1973. It will spend millions of dollars of public funds. It will assume the bonded indebtedness of all the existing districts, and above all it will have the responsibility of educating 27,000 pupils. Such a number equals 33 per cent of the total population. Add to this all the parents and teachers and other interested parties and the awesome responsibility of the schools, whether in a super-district or not, becomes apparent.

IF A UNIFIED district becomes a reality it will be governed by a seven member board with each trustee chosen from a geographical area: one from Brisbane, one from Bayshore, three from Daly City, and two from Pacifica.

It is the opinion of this columnist that there has not been enough discussion of this important matter. As a result the voters may decide willy-nilly on an issue that will govern the effectiveness of the schools for years and years and maybe forever.

It is not too late, however, for voters to inform themselves. The place to start is the green sheet that was mailed by the county clerk with other election materials.

This sheet has four sides and gives in capsule form the recommendations of the State Department of Education, an analysis of unification from the District Attorney, arguments for and against, and a section of information that voters should consider.

A BOOK ENTITLED "California Education Today" by James C. Stone and R. Ross Hempstead contains two chapters that voters should read for background. Chapter six discusses the role of parents and taxpayers. It contains a section on the objectives of education in California and gives much background on how school taxes are collected and how they are spent.

Chapter seven is entitled "Our Schools—The State's Biggest Business." Here is a lot of useful information about the size of school districts in California, the role of school boards and the role of the superintendent, principal, etc.

Chapter seven ends with this statement that should be noticed by every voter before he marks down his yes or no on Proposition B:

"As California faces her responsibilities and obligations for the future, a minimum effort will not be good enough. California must assure each child of a quality education." In our area the quality of education may depend on the vote for or against unification.

James Halley

'Clean-out,' Not 'Clean-up'

It was the Wednesday after the 1980 primary election. As usual, the California ballot was crowded with candidacies and propositions. Proposition 99, an initiative measure against pollution and crime had passed by a large majority and was now coming under careful scrutiny.

In the late afternoon the deputy attorney general assigned to consider that year's anti-pollution, anti-crime initiative appeared before the attorney general.

"Sir, this new act will eliminate our office."

"What?"

"Yes, sir, there is no question."

"How?"

"Well, here on page 5, this thing plainly stops all crime and all pollution in California, and in so doing it wipes out the office of attorney general after 130 years of distinguished public service."

"Read it to me."

"Within five days after the effective date of this act each and every person, man, woman, and child shall leave the State of California."

"The people have spoken."

"There can be little question that this measure does just what Pop Lob, its proponents, promised. It will unquestionably clean up our air, streams, bays, streets and highways, as well as this office, sir."

"Get the Nevada statutes."

"What part?"

"The part that describes how you run for office there."

"What about the people of the State of California?"

"500,000 of them signed this initiative and a great majority voted in its favor."

"What about the kind of laws and government they deserve?"

The attorney general lapsed into thoughtful silence and the question remained unanswered.

This year's ballot contains an anti-pollution measure that is almost as severe and wide of the mark as our hypothetical Proposition 99. Our imaginary act attacks the people directly. Its real life counterpart, the Clean Environment Act, on this year's ballot as Proposition 9, stops only one step short — it attacks the economic well-being of the people of the State of California.

J. E. McKee, professor of environmental engineering, is reported as saying: "Proposition 9 would, indeed, clean up the face of California. Not only would it cut off its nose, but its ears, chin, eyes and forehead in the process. It would be so clean it wouldn't (and couldn't) even function."

Its excesses include: —Overstatement of standards for sulfur content in diesel fuels that would halt every diesel bus, truck, and train for two or more years.

—A five year moratorium on construction of nuclear powered electrical generating units. These, it should be noted, are the modern, clean way of meeting indispensable energy needs.

—Requirement of a 4-5 vote of the legislature to allow use of certain pesticides. This proposal is made at a time the California legislature is known to have difficulty in raising simple majorities for any purpose.

—A multitude of technical deficiencies, including a failure to reconcile its sweeping provisions with present law. Its final section puts the act beyond the reach of the legislature and places in cement many technical matters that could only be resolved later by a vote of the people.

—Loss of millions of dollars of revenues to state and local governments and huge and unnecessary economic loss to businesses and individuals.

The list of flaws and deficiencies goes on and on. Proposition 9 is not a proposal to Clean Up California, but to Clean Out California. It should be soundly defeated.

Director Is Re-elected

The Women Musicians' Club has re-elected Mrs. Edwin Hesselberg of San Francisco to serve as its president. Isabelle Hesselberg is a concert pianist who has served as past president of the Pacific Musical Society, vice president of the Chamber Music Society and chairman of music of the San Francisco Boys Chorus.

WHILE MOST county residents look for excuses to stay out of their cars and off the Bay Area highways, members of the American Cancer Society Free Wheelers organization voluntarily take to the road to drive cancer patients to and from treatments at local hospital and clinics. In addition to driving cancer patients to medical appointments, county chairwomen (above, left to right) Mrs. Marsha Borgo, Daly City; Mrs. Lois Reed, Daly City; Mrs. Lawrence Brian, Redwood City; Mrs. Roland Pierson, San Carlos; and Mrs. William Morrison, Belmont, coordinate the efforts of more than 150 Free Wheelers in San Mateo County.

SECURITY AND DIGNITY

AND THAT IS WHY
WE NEED
LOU PAPAN

Senior Citizens must be assured of a secure retirement, with dignity. Retirement need not mean slipping into oblivion. Louis Papan will continue his fight to keep older citizens in the mainstream of community life.

As a Daly City Councilman he helped push construction of 232 additional new low rent apartments for the aged, establishment of a food stamp outlet closer to where older people live, expansion of the Senior Citizen Center.

As your Assemblyman he will continue this fight for a decent income, good housing and proper medical care.

EILER HANSEN
Funeral services for Eiler Hansen of Daly City will be held Tuesday at 1 p.m. from the Duggan Serra Mortuary, 500 Westlake Avenue, Daly City. Hansen died May 26. He was 64. A member of the Hunters Point Naval Lodge No. 70, F. & M.

A.M. Hansen was a retired U.S. Navy lieutenant and a former employee of the Bank of America.

Friends may call at the mortuary after 7 p.m. Sunday. Survivors include his wife, Muriel; sons, Richard Hansen of San Bruno and Robert Hansen of Daly City; grandchildren, John, Peter and Carrier Hansen.

He was a native of Denmark and had been a resident of San Mateo County for some 15 years, most recently at 599 South Mayfair Avenue. Interment is at Cypress Lawn Cemetery.

HAROLD WALTERS
Harold Walters, 62, a retired paint tinter for Fuller Paint Company in South San Francisco, was found dead Tuesday at his apartment at 739 Airport Boulevard in South San Francisco. Death was due to natural causes.

A native of Lincoln, Neb., he had worked for the paint firm for 27 years, living in San Francisco since 1942 and for the past six years in South San Francisco.

Surviving is a brother, Henry Walter of Missouri. Funeral services were held Wednesday with interment at Skylawn Memorial Park.

ZICKLE MONIZE
Zickle Monize, 69, of 840 Fifth Ave., San Bruno, died May 21 in San Mateo. He was a native of California.

Funeral services were held May 23 from the San Bruno Funeral Home, followed by a mass at St. Bruno's Catholic Church. Interment was at Holy Cross Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife Helen, son Lawrence of Portland, Oregon, and daughter Jacqueline Davis of Petaluma.

PAUL EDINGER
Paul Edinger, 78, long-time resident of San Bruno, died May 20 in Lakeport. He was a native of North Dakota.

Funeral services were held May 23 from the Chapel of the Highlands, Millbrae. Interment was at Skylawn Memorial Park. Survivors include his wife Helen.

HARRISON FISHER
Harrison Fisher, 57, long-time resident of South San Francisco, died May 20 in San Francisco. He was a native of California.

Funeral services were held from the Nauman and Lincoln Mortuary, South San Francisco. Interment was at Woodlawn Memorial Park.

Laguna Board Keeps Mural

It took a 3-2 vote, but the mural on the multi-use room wall of Sanchez School in Pacifica stays.

The administration staff had recommended repainting of the front of the school, thereby eliminating the mural.

Reasons given for removal were that the mural had become a target for vandals, the student council called it "too childish," it is too hard to keep clean, and "art experts" disagree as to its quality.

The Sacred Mosquitoes of California

Who wants to bring back typhoid? Or malaria? Or encephalitis? Only people who love mosquitoes.

The sponsors of Proposition No. 9 on the June 6 ballot must love mosquitoes—also termites, cockroaches and silverfish. Because Proposition No. 9 makes illegal the use or possession of a long list of chemicals, including the only effective pesticides for controlling various pests.

They must hate bees, though. Because the substitute pesticides that could still be used, though far less effective for many purposes, are death on bees. They're also dangerous to humans and pets.

If Proposition No. 9 passed, you could be arrested for having on your premises a can of insect spray you'd purchased some time ago if it happened to contain one of a long list of suddenly illegal ingredients. A university scientist could be arrested for experimenting with any of these banned chemicals in a laboratory research project.

What kind of sense does all this make? Like most things about Proposition No. 9, it doesn't make any sense at all.

It doesn't make sense to risk the resurgence of epidemic diseases that have been kept in control for so many years that most of us have virtually forgotten they ever existed.

It doesn't make sense to risk the destruction of forests and agricultural crops.

It doesn't make sense to prohibit scientists from experimenting to develop new knowledge in the field of pest control.

It doesn't make sense to forbid the use of the only known effective means of protecting your house from termite infestation.

Proposition No. 9 is senseless—and very dangerous.

There's good in most religions, and harm in some. The protected, "sacred cows" of India have contributed to that country's abject poverty for centuries. It would be the height of folly to yield to the fanatics who, in their zeal for a new "religion," would inflict on all of us the "sacred mosquitoes" of California!

Vote NO on Proposition No. 9

There are too many bugs in it!

D.C. Demos Select; Morgan's Aides

PACIFIC GAS and Electric Company managers are cautioning political candidates to advise their volunteer helpers: "Keep the posters off of power poles, please."

Linemen climbing with leg irons risk falls that could cause serious injury if the pole is studied with nails, staples, tacks, and other foreign objects which cause spikes to slip, PG&E says.

The practice also violates a California law prohibiting such use of utility facilities.

COPE-ENDORSED Tony Governale, candidate for Assembly in the 27th District Democratic race, has received the endorsement of the steelworkers.

The announcement was made by Al Biagini, recording secretary for the Steelworkers Local 1069. Biagini, who is also chairman of the Legislative Education Committee of the Steelworkers Sub-district Three, which includes all of Northern California, said that Governale was the unanimous choice of this group.

"Governale is very sincere and has demonstrated leadership in elected office," Biagini said.

THE ITALIAN-AMERICAN Citizens Club of South San Francisco has endorsed Municipal Judge Charles Becker for San Mateo County Superior Court judge in the June 6 election.

John Gava, president of the organization, largest of its kind in North San Mateo County, said the club "feels Judge Becker is the kind of judge needed by the people of San Mateo County."

"Because of Judge Becker's excellent record as a Municipal Court judge, the Italian-American Citizens Club recommends him highly to the voters of San Mateo County," Gava said.

Judge Becker, a Northern District Municipal Court judge since 1958, is running for a vacancy on the Superior Court bench.

THE DALY CITY Democratic Club has unanimously endorsed San Bruno Councilman Tony Governale for the 27th Assembly District seat.

Governale has been a hard-working Democrat in San Mateo County for more than 12 years.

The San Bruno councilman has been president of three Democratic clubs and has been a leader in many campaigns, including those of Robert Kennedy in 1968, former Governor "Pat" Brown, Jess Unruh and State Senator Arlen Gregorio.

Bill Schumacher, an active club member and recently city council candidate, said of this endorsement: "One of Governale's opponents is from Daly City. Our Democratic Club felt that we could not support a man who only recently became a Democrat to run in this race."

"We like Governale's concern for the problems of education and for the property taxpayer in the north county, and we know him to be a man we can work with and who will listen to the people," Schumacher said.

Tony Governale expressed his appreciation to the Daly City Club for its strong vote of confidence in his candidacy, and said that he looks forward to meeting Daly City residents at the many coffees already scheduled in that area.

McROBERT STEWART, chairman of the Ed Morgan 27th Assembly District campaign, has announced the names of his steering committee members.

The committee members, all prominent and active within their communities include: Councilman Paul Hupf; Frank Monte, former member of the Jefferson Elementary School Board; Frank Spaderella; former Mayor, James O'Connor; Councilman Harland Minshew; Mayor Bernard Esser; Councilman David Martin; Frank Ingersoll; and Robert Naylor, Nixon Delegate to Republican National Convention.

The committee released the following statement: "The 27th Assembly District must have a man who commands the respect of all the people, regardless of Party labels; Ed Morgan is such a man. As Superintendent of the Jefferson Union High School District, Ed has the almost unprecedented deference of his associates. His outstanding record, along with his desire to serve relentlessly as a full time legislator, demands our attention."

This committee will do its utmost to assure the election of Ed Morgan.

The committee's request is twofold: (1) Individuals wishing further information are urged to contact Morgan for Assembly Headquarters at 904-2540 and (2) Remember to cast your ballot on June 6th.

Teachers had requested a 5.5 per cent hike in their April 10 proposal to the board, and fringe benefits of $60 per month.

The action, taken at a board study meeting May 22, will boost the annual salary range to $8,213 to $16,672 from the present range of $7,897 to $16,031.

The total cost of the hike to the district will be $164,997, a spokesman said, of which $50,456 has already been budgeted for increments, leaving $114,541 to be raised.

Also approved were fringe benefits amounting to $45 per month, an increase of .35 per cent, an increment increase of 2.2 per cent and a longevity increase of .05 per cent, totalling a 7.12 per cent increase.

District teachers will have a 162-day calendar of working days, of which two are institute days, the rest with pupil contact, according to Board President Remo Boragno.

OCEANA GRAD SAN DIEGO — Navy Seaman Apprentice William B. Funk, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Funk of 3520 Longview Drive, San Bruno, graduated from recruit training at the Naval Training Center at San Diego.

He is a 1971 graduate of Oceana High School, Pacifica.

San Bruno Councilman Tony Governale for the 27th Assembly District seat.

Governale has been a hard-working Democrat in San Mateo County for more than 12 years.

COPE Supports Becker; Party Set for Rhodes, Jackson

Municipal Court Judge Charles Becker, a candidate for San Mateo County Superior Court Judge in the June 6 election, has won the endorsement of the Committee on Political Education (COPE) of the San Mateo County Central Labor Council.

The official COPE endorsement of Judge Becker was announced by Central Labor Council President Edwin F. Michel.

Judge Becker is running for a vacant seat on the Superior Court bench. He has been a Northern District Municipal Court judge since 1958. Judge Becker, 56, is a graduate of the University of San Francisco. He and his wife, Norma, and three children have lived in Daly City for 22 years.

Herb Rhodes, San Mateo County Board of Supervisors candidate, and Clarence Jackson, 11th Congressional District candidate, will be honored Thursday at a coffee-cocktail party from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. Free music and snacks will be provided at the event for the two black candidates at 1675 Bay Road, East Palo Alto, in the Nairobi Shopping Center. The candidates will speak on the issues.

The event is sponsored by many black, white and Chicano politically concerned citizens who live or work in East Palo Alto and know the candidates. A donation of $1 is requested at the door for the refreshment of your choice.

McRobert Stewart, Chairman of Ed Morgan's 27th Assembly District campaign, announced that Karney Barbarian and Mrs. Richard (Patti) McClain are heading Morgan's election drive in San Bruno.

Mrs. McClain, as associate member of the Republican Central Committee, woman's chairman, and Barbarian, a former City Councilman as well as chairman, are making plans for Ed Morgan Day in San Bruno and will participate as active leaders in all aspects of the Morgan campaign.

Youth co-chairmen in San Bruno are Jeff Stolz and Carol Tonini. The Morgan campaign headquarters number is 994-2540.

Tony Montoya of South San Francisco, a candidate for the 27th Assembly District, said that he believes a person should have "a growing concern for the problems that surround us."

He explained: "I oppose busing for ethnic purposes. I have talked with parents of children who are being bused and the consensus is that it is not working. Going to strange surroundings is putting too much pressure on the child. The majority of those questioned would like to strengthen the concept of the neighborhood school, but are being deterred by the Bagley Busing Bill. I believe a child's education should be planned with the following three factors to give him a complete education. They are: (1) The home, (2) The community, (3) The neighborhood school."

Montoya added: "Failure in any one of these three factors will result in the breakdown of the child's educational plan. In these trying days, we should reinforce the pride in our neighborhood school rather than destroy it by busing."

"The money now spent for busing should go towards increasing the quality of education in the neighborhood school."

Montoya representative, I promise to work towards the repeal of the Bagley busing bill."

Will Slocum journeyed to the Daly City "Candidate's Night" meeting of the League of Women Voters with intent to spread a few words around about how Democratic voters can support Will Slocum by casting a "write-in" vote behind Slide 9 on their primary ballot, but Slocum says the League barely allowed Will Slocum to say, "I just came here to say that there is nothing that I can say!" because "only bona fide paid-up Democratic ballot candidates were invited to speak and to answer questions."

Slocum, in a release concerning the LWV affair, said, "I did manage to encounter the two Democratic candidates for the 27th District State Assembly seat who aren't too clear on how they go about making a living... and was abjectly surprised by their ebullient congeniality towards a fellow candidate who has just publicly charged them with being liars."

Slocum continued: "I expected they would show some sign of slight umbrage at being so charged, but both Governale and Papan didn't seem to mind at all that their integrity has been questioned."

Slocum also stated that he believed a couple of other questions should be answered before the June 6 primary. "Is the Democratic Central Committee really paying for the Governale campaign?" and,

"Did the San Mateo county clerk bend the rules some to allow Lou Papan to file as a Democrat?"

The American Federation of Teachers, Local 1481 of Daly City and Pacifica, has endorsed Tony Governale for the 27th Assembly District seat, according to its president, Bob Delzell. A teacher at Terra Nova High School, Delzell is a resident of Burlingame.

Delzell said, "Our primary concern as a union is for equitable financing of schools so that all children have the opportunity for an equal, quality education. At the present time they do not, particularly in the Laguna Salada district."

"We're convinced that Tony Governale will fight hard to put school financing on a sound basis throughout the State and to relieve the property tax burden in favor of a more progressive tax."

Meanwhile, Governale said,

"The key to both tax reform and the problems of unequal education lies in the Supreme Court's recent Serrano vs. Priest decision. It presents a welcome mandate for the first real opportunity for meaningful tax reform in our state's history."

Governale criticized Governor Reagan for his lack of support for education. In 1967, the state's share of the cost of a child's education was 37.4 percent. It has now dropped to 31.4 percent. A decline of $16 per pupil. When the overburdened property taxpayer was called on to fill this gap, 60 percent of the school tax elections last year were rejected.

Herb Rhodes, San Mateo County supervisors candidate from the Fourth District, today charged one of his opponents, Bill Royer, with "failure to meet face-to-face with the people of San Mateo County and discuss the critical issues before us."

"I have been present at all three candidates' nights sponsored by different organizations in San Mateo County," said Rhodes, "and Mister Royer was not present at any of them." Noting that Royer's signs plaster the County from end-to-end, Rhodes said: "Mister Royer has promised to be a full-time supervisor," but has curiously failed to be a full-time campaigning.

"In my humble opinion," Rhodes concluded, "no one has the right to represent our citizens in elected office if he fails to appear before the public to both reveal and defend his stands on the issues."

Rodney G. Minott, chairman of the San Mateo County Citizens for McGovern, announced today that Diarmuid McGuire, 29, is appointed press coordinator for the McGovern campaign in San Mateo County.

McGovern supporters have opened four offices in San Mateo County and are planning a fifth in the Coast community of Moss Beach. The headquarters are located at 2610 Broadway in Redwood City, 7119 Mission St. in Daly City, 2330 S. El Camino in San Mateo, and 645 San Mateo Dr. in San Bruno. McGovern supporters in Pacifica are working out of the Periwinkle Gallery at 303 San Pedro St.

EASING OF THE added burden imposed by the Reagan Administration upon persons with parents on welfare had the backing today of Louis J. Papan, Democratic candidate for the 27th Assembly District in the June 6 Primary.

County Prep Breaks CCS Hurdle Record

Millard Hampton won the Central Coast Section track and field championship Saturday night at the age of 15; no one could follow his act so he followed his own, with three stunning performances.

Still, a quartet of local athletes managed to divert the capacity crowd at San Jose City College from Hampton's unbelievable precocity with a few bell-ringer performances of their own.

Sophomore flash Hampton, whom some coaches present said has more potential than Lee Evans did at that age, anchored Silver Creek of San

Steve Miller

Jose's winning sprint relay team, then went on to win the 100 and 220 by several yards (at 9.7 and 21.5).

Silver Creek aced out Mount Hamilton Athletic League rival Mt. Pleasant for the team title, 22 1/2-21, almost entirely on Hampton's efforts.

Serra High senior half miler Jack Wandro, who had spent most of the season fighting his way back from a calamitous early ankle injury, took the lead at the halfway mark of the final lap of his race and hung on gamely for a CCS title in 1:54.3, his life best.

Serramonte junior hurdler Ike Allmond exploded past a talented field in the high hurdles and crossed the line in a record-shattering 14.1. It was the classic mark of the meet. Crestmoor's Bart Pierce was third in 14.3 and Burlingame's Andy Kolesnikow, who knocked 3 of his life best in one incredible day, took fifth.

In the low hurdles it was Pierce's turn; he was the favorite and disappointed no one as he sped to a 19.1 win. Allmond finished fourth in 19.6.

And Carlmont miler Steve Miller ran smoothly to a life-best 4:12.5 to beat a fast field.

The top three placers in each event go to Orville Friday and Saturday for the state meet.

Wandro had plenty of pressure. The courageous 5-6 senior took the lead coming off the turn onto the backstretch. "I was kind of boxed in," he said. "I saw a little opening and decided to go."

Go he did. But once he had the lead, holding it was no cinch. "When I took the lead I saw a shadow next to me: I decided to outrun the shadow." The shadow finished 4 back.

Wandro's coach, Rick Fambri, said the ankle injury might have been the best thing that could have happened to him. "It kept him from peaking too soon," Fambri said. "He only started getting back into shape three weeks ago. He hadn't reached the limit yet. I think he can run 1:52 in the state meet." That could earn him a place.

Serramonte's Allmond had been consistently under 15 seconds in the highs all year and was one of the top qualifiers.

S.S.F. Hurlers All-NPL

By JERRY LITTELL

For the first time in league history two pitchers from the same team were chosen to the All-North Peninsula League baseball squad as South San Francisco High School's Terry Handley and Rick Haggstrom headed a 13-man first team.

Four pitchers in all made the first team list which included Player-of-the-Year Dennis Yamamoto as a utility player. Half Moon Bay, which had a strong first half but fell apart after the midway point, also tied South City with three players chosen to the first team by league coaches.

Joining Handley and Haggstrom on the fairly crowded mound were Terra Nova's John Racanelli (4-4, 1.20 ERA) and Westmoor junior Gavin Long (4-1, 0.98 ERA). Handley's 13-1 NPL record (1.60 ERA) and Haggstrom's perfect 5-0 (0.85 ERA) were just too much for the coaches to overlook. South SF coach Bob Brian, who led his team to its best season ever (22-2 overall) was selected Coach of the Year.

Westmoor's Gary Stoller was named All-League catcher after a .462 year at the plate. Although his average was the highest in the league he didn't qualify for the batting title because of the injury that sidelined him for the last two games.

Three infielders — El Camino's Rich Wright (.333) and Phil Marty (.347) and Ocean's Phil Ayers (.354) — made the first team and all three will be back next year. Ayers and Marty are sophomores while Wright is a junior.

Half Moon Bay's Dennis Aville was selected to the first base position.

Two more pitchers made the outfield slots also. HMB's Frankie Reyes (.395) and Jefferson's Ken Smith (.432) joined Half Moon Bay's Tom Sallet (.340) in the high grass. Smith wound up with the official batting title.

Percentages Fail for South City Hopefuls

By STEVE JOHNSON

The next time South San Francisco High baseball coach Bob Brian hears the word respect, he may shudder a little.

He couldn't help it after Saturday's 6-2 loss to Rioridan at Washington Park in the CCS Region I title game.

And it was respect, although thoroughly justified, that was the turning point to downfall for Brian's Warriors.

The situation was this: Score tied 2-2. Bottom of the fifth. Runner at third, two outs. Don Lyons, a lefty swinger who has been simply murdering the ball all week, coming up. S.S.F. has right-hander Rick Haggstrom on the mound.

Brian almost has his choice made for him. Lyons already has two hits — both solid liners. Next batter is righthanded. Against him, the percentages would be with Haggstrom. The Warriors show their respect for Lyons. He is intentionally walked.

Up comes Crusader cleanup man Rene Mariluch. He doesn't wait for the percentages to catch up on him. Mariluch rips the first pitch he sees all the way to the fence in left-center, easily scoring the two go-ahead runs. He takes third with a stand-up triple, and scores three pitches later on an error. That's the game right there.

South City wasted no time in the first inning, grabbing a quick 2-0 lead off Rioridan starter Dave Morton. Morton lasted approximately ten pitches (with nothing on most of them except for the Wilson trademark stamp).

One out later, Hank Love cracked a single to right, bringing in Bachold. Morton left. In came Mariluch from center-field, and that was the beginning of the end for the Warriors.

Mariluch got his first man on a weak bouncer to first, and Love, apparently confused as to the number of outs, got picked off second on the same play to end the inning. S.S.F. wasn't to get any more shots.

Haggstrom had the strikeout ball working early, whiffing six batters in the first three innings. But Rioridan, always a fearsome hitting bunch during its title season in the West Catholic Athletic League and Thursday's first round win over Burlingame rammed home single runs in both the second and third to tie the score.

Meanwhile, Mariluch was breezing. After the first, he retired seven straight hitters. Then, South City had its last threat. With one down in the fourth, Hank Love drilled a single to right.

Bruce Lau backed that with a perfect hit-and-run single through shortstop, sending Love to third. But Lau, hoping to draw a throw at second that would allow Love to score, got thrown out while Love stayed glued to third.

Steve Linemen then hit a hump-backed liner that looked like it might drop in short right, but speedy Crusader second-baseman Mark Almirol was there to make the inning-ending catch.

After that Mariluch allowed just one more hit, a one-out single by Lau in the seventh. Throwing hard with good control, he struck out seven and walked one during his six and two-thirds innings of relief.

South San Francisco, overwhelming winner in the tough North Peninsula League, finishes a highly successful season at 22-3 — the best record in the county.

Economy Cuts In Baseball

In discussing the baseball strike last month, we said at one point:

"Most of the striking players have been spoiled and coddled since the day they signed their first contracts, and reaped from owners extras that are never in contracts and rarely made known in the media."

"Non-publicized fringe benefits are numerous. Free air fare for wives, traveling with their husband-athletes, for instance. Sizeable loans at little or no interest... free legal advice... gratis financial advice, helpful hints on the market and in business, etc."

"The owners would have probably made out quite well if they had given the players everything they wanted, but gone strictly by the book and cut off all unwritten fringe benefits..."

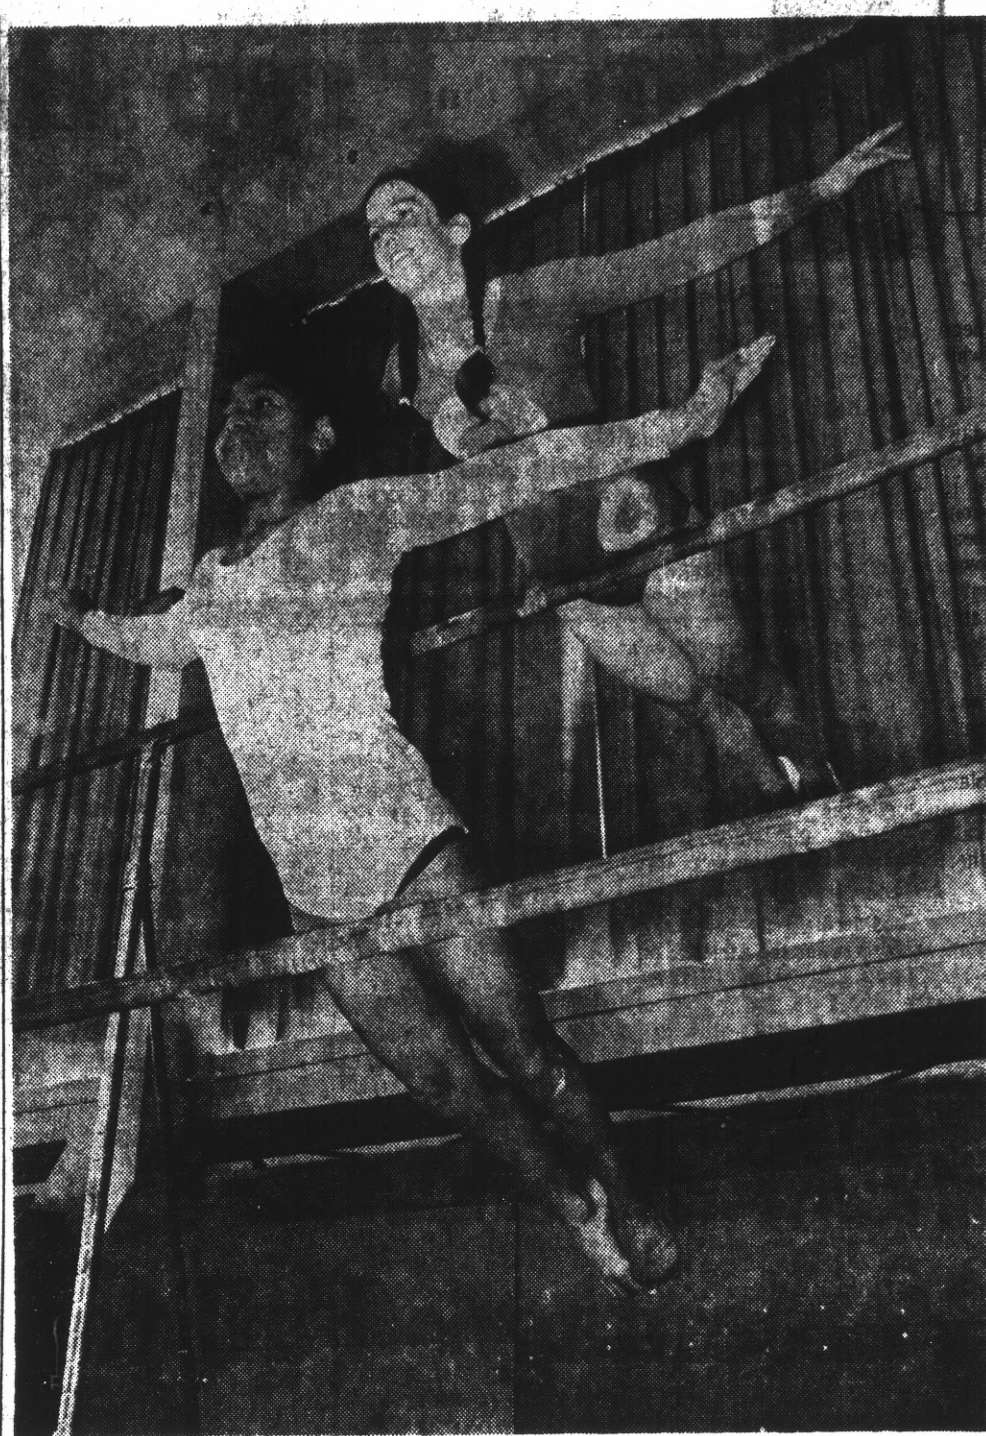

Our implication, of course, was that some of the owners, especially the more generous ones, might commence cutting into such unwritten fringe benefits to make up for what the players had cost them at the gate during the strike.

It's generally acknowledged in the business that one of the best organizations to play for is the St. Louis Cardinals, and that Augie Busch is one of the most generous owners; and no sooner had we gotten our statement on fringe benefits out of the typewriter, than an announcement of an economy wave came out of, guess where — St. Louis.

The Cardinals, only club in baseball to room its players singly, announced that henceforth they would be doubling up, at a saving to the club of $10,000. Other possible economy measures mentioned were the dropping of Redbird players from the club's off-season speakers bureau (a set-up in which the players get paid to speak and are still permitted to hold other jobs), and not allowing wives on chartered flights, which had been allowed at times in the past.

And so it begins. The end, perhaps of coddling, and the

Mills Graduate Named Editor

A former Burlingame resident has been named camping editor of "Field & Stream" magazine.

Steve Netherby, 29, a 1960 graduate of Mills High, will write and do the camera work for monthly camping articles starting with the October issue.

Prior to joining the New York-based publication as assistant editor three years ago, Netherby served for five years as a Navy pilot and spent a year as editor of a weekly Colorado newspaper.

LBYA Pistons Keep First Place, Defeat Mustangs

The LBYA Pistons remained in first place by half a game over the LBYA Mustangs, through a 6 to 1 victory over the Scots Greys.

The Pistons were led by the fine hitting of Kent Carrillo, Jim Ryan and Frank Colclough who all hit doubles for the winners.

The LBYA Mustangs remained close by trouncing the St. Andrews Blues, 26 to 6.

The St. Thomas More Pilots broke into the win column for the first time this season by pulling out a squeaker over the Hunts team by a final score of 9-8. Chris Butler set up and scored the winning run by stealing third base and scoring the deciding run on the catcher's overthrow.

Jerry Burchard went the distance for the Pilots and recorded 16 strike outs The PAL Caulley Litho Liners downed the OLM Wildcats 8-3 as Pete Eliopoulos pitched a solid one hit game.

Ron Sylvia led the Liners' hitting attack with a perfect dqy at the plate. He has two triples, a double and a single.

The Scots Greys showed no favoritism as they rolled to a 13-2 win over the Scots Blues. Bob Hyland went "two for two" for the Greys. The LBYA Pistons scored a 5-1 victory over the Hunts team, to remain in first place. The LBYA Mustangs kept in hot pursuit of the Pistons edging OLM, 6-5. Jim Pedersen went "three for three."

SEVENTH GRADE Intermediate League

Standings and Highlights

The OLM Raiders and the LBYA Cougars remain the only undefeated teams in the 7th grade intermediate league. In last week's action, OLM defeated the LBYA Reds 15-0 and the OLPH Orioles 9-3. Ed Migale, Tim Kavanagh and Mike Stack led OLM to these 2 big wins. The LBYA Cougars kept pace with the Raiders by defeating Holy Angels Green Machine 14-1 and the OLPH Orioles 11-1. Jody Buttrum and Robbie Romo led LBYA to their victory over the Orioles. Buttrum and Romo each had two hits. Jeff Jones and Tim Howard led LBYA to their victory over the Green Machine. Howard hit a home-run and triple, while Jeff Jones went "two for three."

The AAA "As" remained in title contention by picking up two wins' last week. The A's defeated the Holy Angels Green Machine 11-0 and came back to crush the LYBA Reds 19-1. Craig Garrity was the star for the A's in both games. West aided Garrity's play with some fine pitching.

Sixth Grade National League

Five teams remain in contention for a playoff spot. The AAA Crusaders, OLM Pistons, OLPH Tigers, St. Andrews Scots, and PAL Colts are locked in a real battle for the title.

In last week's action, the St. Andrews Scots picked up a pair of important victories as they defeated the PAL Colts, 9-0 and the PAL Tigers, 17-1. Chris Toohy also struck out 12 batters in pitching St. Andrews to this victory. Mike King and Ken Saisi led St. Andrews to their victory over the Tigers. King and Saisi combined their pitching talents to fire a one hit over the Tigers. In 14 innings of pitching last week, St. Andrews pitching staff gave up two hits.

The AAA Crusaders pulled a surprise upset by downing the OLM Mets, 9-3. Mark Friles and Ken Rodriguez led AAA to this victory. The PAL Colts after getting shut out by the St. Andrews Scots bounced back into the win column by defeating the Holy Angels Godfathers 6-3. Russ Pinomski struck out 14 batters to lead the Colts to this victory. Bill Kenneough, Gary Howard, Alva
